Winter 2008

Award-winning, thanks to you

The Minnesota Chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID) recently announced its Twin Cities top design award winners. Pisa Design earned Residential Best of Show honors for its Design for Renovation entry. Pisa also placed first in three other categories: Residential Kitchen, Residential Multiple Rooms and Residential Bathroom.

These awards may adorn our walls, but it's the homeowners we worked with who merit a standing ovation. From the first floor plan to the last accent, only together could we create award-winning design. Thank you.

The ASID awards are featured in the December 2007 edition of Mpls St. Paul Magazine.

Did someone say Oscar®?

A new awards season is just around the corner, highlighted by the Academy Awards on February 24. And while some writers may be forced to skip the festivities, you don't have to watch them pass you by. With six short weeks until the red carpet is rolled out, you still have time to get your home into character. Call Pisa today, 952-926-3572.

Shine like the stars

Looking to host an awards show party that includes more than a bowl of popcorn and your favorite pair of bunny slippers? Consider these five party tips:

1. Roll out the red carpet. Incorporate red into your party color scheme, from a runner in your entry to accessories and dishware.
2. Look fabulous. Have your guests dress in formal attire.
3. Nominations please. Provide ballots at the door for your guests to predict the winners.
4. Wolfgang Puck who? Serve Hollywood worthy appetizers.
5. And the winner is... Reward the guest with the most correct award predictions at the end of the night.
